

In a ceremony on Friday, Zena, who lives in State College, graduated from being an astronaut candidate in NASA Astronaut Group 22 and is now a full-fledged astronaut.

Zena's academic achievements are numerous. She is trained as a marine biologist, and Zena has focused her research on microorganisms in sub-surface environments.

It is clear that her success shows that she possesses both the work ethic and intrepid spirit exemplified by many across Pennsylvania's 12th Congressional District.

As an astronaut, Zena faces an exciting time in the history and future of NASA. The Artemis missions aim to return humans to the Moon by 2024. That also includes putting the first woman on the Moon.

Since the beginning of the space program, the work of our Nation's astronauts in advancing the cause of discovery in space and on Earth shows the best of mankind and that our achievements are limited only by our ambitions.

Madam Speaker, again, it is my honor to recognize the achievements of Zena Cardman on becoming an astronaut and joining the rich history of pride and wonder that comes with that distinction.

RECOGNIZING ELIZABETH SILBAUGH JOHNNIDES

(Mr. SMUCKER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. SMUCKER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize and thank a business and community leader from the congressional district that I represent.

Elizabeth Silbaugh Johnnides of Hanover tirelessly gives back to her community and is always looking for ways to lift up and empower women in business. Liz works professionally as a financial adviser and continues to work with her family business, a fixture of southern York County, The Markets at Hanover and Shrewsbury.

Liz has worked to transform The Markets at Hanover into a space that welcomes events from nonprofits and community organizations. She also gives of her time, serving on the boards of a number of area nonprofit organizations, including Sweet Charities of Hanover, which has raised over $2 million to support community organizations.

Liz was recently recognized as the recipient of the 2019 Community Leader

Award by Hanover Area Chamber of Commerce for her many years of service to the Hanover community.

Madam Speaker, I thank Liz for her tireless efforts to improve the Hanover community.

HONORING SHERIFF TOM BOSENKO FOR 40 YEARS OF SERVICE

(Mr. LAMALFA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. LAMALFA. Madam Speaker, I rise tonight to honor a good friend and a great leader in Shasta County, Sheriff Tom Bosenko, who served 40 years with the Shasta County Sheriff's Office, 14 years as sheriff.

He has worked in nearly every division of the sheriff's office, including patrol operations, school resource officer, SWAT, antigang enforcement, and the canine unit. Importantly, he was at the helm of the sheriff's office when the historic Carr fire hit last year. I can't thank him enough for keeping order and calm in directing people in a positive fashion during that time.

Madam Speaker, he is a four-time recipient of the Best in the North State's Best Elected Official award.

He has worn his badge with honor, never backing down from what needs to be done and shouldering the burden of keeping the community safe. I saw him everywhere I went during my time visiting around in the district there. He is a community guy.

Madam Speaker, as a motorcycle lover, I think Tom will ride his Harley-Davidson right into retirement. He is, in retirement, still a fierce defender of our Second Amendment rights.

Madam Speaker, I thank Tom for his unwavering service to the community, the people of the north State, and his example. He will be missed, certainly, but I know his successor, Sheriff Eric Magrini, will do well under Tom's tutelage. I appreciate him, and may God bless him.
